Highland Light, standing on the unusual formation called Clay Pounds, is one of the largest on the Atlantic Coast and is known the world over.

It may not be generally known that these lighthouses are open daily to the public and that they can be inspected between 9 and 12 o'clock in the morning and 2 and 4 in the afternoon. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to visit them.

PROVINCETOWN is one of the quaintest places, not only on the Cape but in the entire country with its old streets, very narrow at that, and fairly teems with "local color" which attracts scores of artists every year eager to transfer the odd scenes to canvas. It is entirely unlike any other town in the country and must be seen to be fully appreciated.
